Public Transportation

Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) - BART is the Bay Area's public transit system of high-speed electric trains, which connects Contra Costa, Alameda and San Francisco counties. The 12th Street/City Center BART station in downtown Oakland is located adjacent to City Center. After disembarking from the train, exit the station via the 13th Street exit. This exit opens onto the City Center Lower Plaza. From this entrance, follow the directional arrows to your destination building.

Alameda Oakland Ferry - The Alameda/Oakland Ferry is a great way to commute from San Francisco into Oakland's City Center from locations around the San Francisco Bay. It takes about 12 minutes to walk from the Jack London Square ferry dock to 555 City Center. The ferry makes connections from the Ferry Building in San Francisco, PIER 39 in San Francisco, the City of Alameda and Angel Island State Park.
